

Who: Clergy and Lay Leaders

Why You Want to Attend:

The Summit on Domestic Violence is presented as an opportunity for the Faith-Based Communities of Saint Paul to start working with the Police Department to make the City of Saint Paul a safer place to live. Presentations and discussion during the day will give you a chance to learn about Domestic Violence, how it affects families, community and how you can respond to this problem. This Summit provides a perfect time to ask questions and voice concerns regarding Domestic Violence. Clergy and lay leaders will have an opportunity to share your own experiences and suggestions for developing responses to this problem.

There is no cost involved and lunch will be provided.
